

Karen Thorpe is a licensed minister with the Council of Evangelical Churches of Canada. Karen is a graduate of the Institute of Child Studies at the University of Toronto and has extensive experience in the field of early childhood education. She is the Coordinator of Women and Family Programs for the Yonge Street Mission.