

Marcie Ricketts is a resident of the Regent Park community and is the mother of two school-aged children. Marcie was born in Jamaica where she received a Bachelor of Education from Northern Caribbean University in Jamaica and worked as an Early Childhood Supervisor with the Early Childhood Institution in the Ministry of Education, Jamaica. Marcie is a volunteer at Nelson Mandela Public School and is a member of the Advisory Committee of the Women and Family Department of the Yonge Street Mission.